MINISTER ASSAILS WAR NEWS EDITORS

Preaches on Religious End of Turko-Italian Conflict.

POLITICAL SIDE "FEATURED"

Rev. Earle Wilfley Says Newspaper Men Profess Amazement and Show Signs of Distress that Italy Should So Abuse Turkey. Wishes Christian Arms Success.

Newspaper and magazine editors were andled in an uncomplimentary manner y Rev. Earle Wilfley, pastor of Vermont Avenue Christian Church, in a sermon he preached last night before a large congregation, taking for his subject. The religious aspects of the Turko editors," said the preacher, "mote editors," said the preacher, "profess armazement and show signs of distress that Italy should so abuse poor Turkey. They don't know what they're talking about. They merely look at the political side of the question; they don't go deep efrough; they forget that there is a religious question at the bottom of the whole trouble. It gives me a pain; it makes me sick."

COLLEGES CRIPPLED.

Howard's President Pleads for Religious Teaching.

Declaring that the gradual elimination of religion from the curriculum is changing the attitude of the college-bred man and defeating his humanitarian mission in life, Rev. Dr. Wilbur P. Thirkield in life, Rev. Dr. Wilder P. Thirkield, yesterday afternoon pleaded for the re-habilitation of religion as a part of the educational course. Dr. Thirkield ad-dressed a large gathering of Howard University students at the vesper serv-ices in Rankin Memorial Chapei. "If our cities with great foreign popu-lations are to be reached and unlifted lations are to be reached and uplifted and the nation brought into a larger and higher life," said Dr. Thirkield, "men from our colleges, deminated by the re-ligious spirit and consecration to the helping of humanity, must be sent fora very imposing display. This firm specializes in player-planos, carrying many makes.

The great body of students formerly "The great body of students formerly, in denominational colleges are now in great State universities under public control. Heligion is given a leaser and lesser place each year; athletics and the commercial spirit dominate." In conclusion the speaker said: "The old colleges sent out men dominated by religious enthusians, such as Wendell Phillips and George William Curtis, men who could gather in the hay field and promulgate a movement, the American foreign missions, that enlightened the continent."

A new department is that of the Victor-Victrolas, where those instruments are shown in numerous sizes and grades, and a stock of every record made by the Victor Company and every one of them fresh and new.

The growth of the Frederick Plano Company has been remarkable. Beginning the entry-five years ago in a little burg in Pennsylvania, Mr. W. F. Frederick planted the seeds which have grown into a great corporation capitalised at $1.250,000, and operating more than fifty establishments in different cities, their main warercome being Pittsburg, Cleveland, and Washington.

In the formation of this corporation D. G. Pfeiffer, of this city, who has been a plano dealer here for twenty years, took an active part, being a personal friend of long standing of Mr. Frederick, and was rewarded by being electic vice president of the corporation and manager of the Washington branch. Mr. Pfeiffer's ability, both in the practical and the musical branches of the particularity of the corporation as a whole and of the local branch in particularity company expect to have a cormal opening later in the fall, but before the very a visit to this newsest plano establishment will be well repaid.
